1. Introduction – The Company

- (a) Forever Living Products ('FLP'), an international family of companies that produces and markets exclusive health and beauty products throughout the world through its unique concept that encourages and supports the use and retail sales of its products through independent Forever Business Owners ('FBOs'). FLP provides each FBO with the best quality products, support staff and marketing plan in the industry. The affiliated companies and their products provide an opportunity for both consumers and FBOs to improve the quality of their lives from the use of FLP products, and equal access to success to anyone willing to properly work the programme. Unlike most business opportunities, there is little financial risk to FLP's participants since no minimum capital investment is required and the Company provides a liberal buy-back policy.
- (b) FLP does not represent that an FBO will achieve financial success without working or by relying solely on the efforts of others. Compensation in FLP is based upon the sale of its products. Each FBO is independent and success or failure depends on personal effort.
- (c) FLP has a long history of success. The fundamental goal of the FLP Marketing Plan is to promote the sale and use of high quality products to consumers. The primary purpose of the FBO is to build a sales organisation to promote the sale and use of these products to consumers.
- (d) The FBO, regardless of his/her level in the FLP Marketing Plan, is encouraged to make retail sales each month and to keep accurate records of such sales.
- (e) A successful FBO gains current knowledge of the market by attending training meetings, maintaining personal retail customers, and sponsoring other FBOs to sell to retail customers.
- (f) An FBO who has questions or needs clarification should contact Business Owner Support on (ROI) 048 28 262018, (Northern Ireland) 028 28 262018 or (mainland UK) 01926 626 629 or by emailing businessownerssupport-ire@flp.ltd or businessownerssupport-uk@flp.ltd
- (g) Having signed the FBO application form, an FBO may not purchase, or make a commitment to purchase, more than £200 of products and/or literature from the Company or his/her sponsor, within the first seven days of the agreement becoming effective (the time when the FBO's application form has been successfully approved, and processed at Head Office). THIS IS A STATUTORY REQUIREMENT.
- (h) Only adults over eighteen years old are permitted to apply to become an FBO.

- (a) Company policies have been implemented to provide restrictions, rules and regulations for proper sales and marketing procedures and to prevent improper, abusive or illegal acts. Such company policies are revised, modified and added to, from time to time. Revisions, modifications or amendments to the Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct shall be published on www.foreverliving.com and shall become effective 30 days after publication.

- (b) Each FBO has an obligation to become familiar with the company policies in existence at the time of enrolment and as revised, modified or amended by the Company.
 - (c) Each FBO, upon completing the Forever Business Owner application form, agrees to abide by FLP company policies. Language therein specifically refers to the FBO's contractual commitment to follow FLP company policies. The placing of orders for products with FLP is a reaffirmation of such commitment to abide by the company policies and the Code of Professional Conduct. Any acts or lack of action, which results in a misuse, misrepresentation or violation of the company policies and/or the Code of Professional Conduct, may cause termination of the license granted to use FLP's registered trademarks, service marks, and other marks, including the right to buy, and to distribute FLP products.
 - (d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any revision, modification, amendment to, or termination of (a) the Dispute Resolution/Waiver of Jury Trial agreement contained in these Company Policies and the Code of Professional Conduct (Section 18.01) and/or (b) the agreements contained in the Dispute Resolution Policy referenced therein and available on FLP's Company website at www.foreverliving.com, shall not apply to a dispute of which the Company has actual notice of prior to the effective date of such revision, modification, amendment or termination. The effective date of any such revision, modification, amendment or termination shall be 30 days after the revision, modification, amendment or termination is posted on the FLP Company website at www.foreverliving.com.
- 1.3. Forever Living Products (UK and Ireland) Limited (which is referred to in this handbook as 'the Company' and/or 'FLP') is the promoter of this selling system.
- 1.4. Forever Living Products (UK and Ireland) Limited is an associated company of Forever Living Products International Inc, whose head office is at 7501 East McCormick Parkway, Scottsdale, Arizona 85258 USA.
- 1.5. The Forever Living Products group of companies is engaged in the sale and distribution of health, nutritional and beauty-related products which are fully described in their company literature.
- 1.6. The Forever Living Products group of companies sells their products through a multi-level marketing plan using Forever Business Owners (FBOs) to sell the products and deliver them to retail customers. The Forever Living Products Marketing Plan is founded upon honesty and integrity, and allows an equal and fair opportunity for everyone to achieve success.
- 1.7. All FBOs agree to comply with the rules and regulations set out in this company policy handbook and agree that the Company has a right to change these rules at any time on not less than thirty days' written notice. FBOs agree to comply with those rules, as amended, and that they form part of their contract with the Company. No amendment to the rules will require FBOs to incur any expenditure, but they may require them to amend their business practices. Any changes to the policy handbook will be notified to FBOs in the Company's weekly e-newsletter (and/or by email / notification from Forever) and FBOs agree that this is sufficient notification. FBOs agree that if they are inactive, and in consequence do not receive a weekly e-newsletter, they are still bound by any change to the policy handbook set out in that e-newsletter.

1.8. A copy of the company policy handbook should be supplied to new FBOs by the sponsor before the FBO application is completed.

(a) The Company is a member of the Direct Selling Association UK (DSA) and the Direct Selling Association of Ireland (DSAI). FBOs are required to be aware of and comply with the terms and conditions of both the DSA/DSAI Consumer Code of Practice and the DSA/DSAI Code of Business Conduct.

(b) It is illegal for the Company or an FBO to persuade anyone to make a payment by promising benefits from getting others to join the scheme. Do not mislead by making claims that high earnings are easily achieved.

2. Definitions

2.1. The Forever Living Products Marketing Plan provides for active FBOs to receive monthly sales bonuses and other rewards for their accredited sales and those of their sponsored group.

(c) Three levels of the Earned Incentive programmeme are available:

(iii) Level 3: The Company will pay a maximum of £525/€800 per month for a maximum of thirty-six consecutive months.

1	50	75	100
2	100	150	200
3	150	225	300

(e) During the period of thirty-six months immediately following qualification, the Manager will receive the maximum payment amount for the level achieved each month that the 'month three' case credit requirement is maintained.

(f) If the Manager's total case credits drop below the month three requirement during any month, that month's earned incentive payment will be calculated at £1.75/ €2.66 multiplied by the Manager's total case credits for that month.

(g) If the Manager's total case credits drop below fifty in any given month, the earned incentive for that month will not be paid. If in the subsequent months the qualifying Manager's case credits increase to fifty or more, the earned incentive will be paid in accordance with the policy as set out above.

(h) A Manager who has five personally-sponsored active recognised Managers during the third qualification month, or any month during the thirty-six month period, will have the month three requirement reduced to 110, 175, or 240 total case credits for Levels 1, 2 or 3, respectively.

- (i) A Manager who has five personally sponsored active sponsored recognised Managers during the third qualification month, or any month during the thirty-six month period, will have the Month three requirement reduced to 110, 175, or 240 total case credits for levels 1, 2 or 3, respectively.
- (j) Case credits will count towards the qualification and maintenance requirements only during the months in which the qualifying Manager is active.
- (k) The case credits generated by an active FBO before becoming a recognised Manager will count toward the earned incentive qualification.
- (l) After completing the third qualifying month for an earned incentive, a Manager may qualify for a higher incentive at any time starting with the very next month. For example, if a Manager qualifies for Level 1 in January, February, and March with 50, 100, and 150CC, and then generates 225CC in April, the Level 1 payment period would be replaced with a new thirty-six month payment period for Level 2.
- (m) At the end of the thirty-six month period, a Manager may requalify for a new earned incentive using the same qualifications as outlined above. This requalification must be satisfied during any three consecutive months within the last six months of the original thirty-six month payment period.

- (f) A re-sponsored FBO counts towards all Level 1 requirements.
- (g) If an FBO achieves Manager during the qualification period, the Chairman's Bonus requirements are NOT prorated. The FBO needs to accomplish the 700 personal and non Manager/150 NEW case credits during the remainder of the qualification period after achieving Manager level.

Chairman's Bonus Manager (CBM) Level 2.

- 11.3. In addition to the core requirements, the following must be achieved in the qualifying country, unless otherwise noted:
- (a) Accumulate 600 personal and non-Manager case credits during the incentive period after becoming a recognised Manager, the sum of which must include 100 NEW case credits. The NEW case credits may be generated and combined in any country. A maximum of 100 NEW case credits from outside the qualifying country can be counted. However, for purposes of calculating incentive shares, NEW case credits generated outside the qualifying country will not be counted.
 - (b) Other than the allowable NEW case credits, all personal and non-Manager case credits must be generated in the qualifying country.
 - (c) Develop three CBMs in any generation, each in separate downlines, in any participating country.
 - (d) A re-sponsored FBO counts towards all Level 2 requirements.
 - (e) If an FBO achieves Manager during the qualification period, the Chairman's Bonus requirements are NOT prorated. The FBO needs to accomplish the 600 personal and non-Manager/100 NEW case credits during the remainder of the qualification period after achieving Manager level.

Chairman's Bonus Manager (CBM) Level 3.

- 11.4. In addition to the core requirements, the following must be achieved in the qualifying country, unless otherwise noted:
- (a) Accumulate 500 personal and non-Manager case credits during the incentive period after becoming a recognised Manager, the sum of which must include 100 NEW case credits. The NEW case credits may be generated and combined in any country. A maximum of 100 NEW case credits from outside the qualifying country can be counted. However, for purposes of calculating incentive shares, NEW case credits generated outside the qualifying country will not be counted.
 - (b) Other than the allowable NEW case credits, all personal and non-Manager case credits must be generated in the qualifying country.
 - (c) Develop six CBMs in any generation, each in separate downlines, in any participating country.
 - (d) A re-sponsored FBO counts towards all Level 3 requirements.
 - (e) If an FBO achieves Manager during the qualification period, the Chairman's Bonus requirements are NOT prorated. The FBO needs to accomplish the 500 personal and non-Manager/100 NEW case credits during the remainder of the qualification period after achieving Manager level.

Chairman's Bonus incentive calculation.

- 11.5.
- (a) A global bonus pool will be determined and then allocated as follows:
 - (i) One half of the pool will be paid to those who qualify in Levels one, two and three.
 - (ii) One third of the pool will be paid to those who qualify in Levels two and three.
 - (iii) One sixth of the pool will be paid to those who qualify in Level three.
 - (b) The qualifying CBM will be awarded one incentive share for each of his/her total case credits generated in the qualifying country (but not including the NEW case credits generated outside of the qualifying country), plus the incentive shares generated by the first CBM in each of his/her sponsorship lines in any participating country.
 - (c) Each pool division will be divided by the grand total incentive shares of all CBMs who qualified for that pool division to determine the money factor for that division. This money factor will be multiplied by the incentive shares of each individual CBM to arrive at the payment amount of the incentive.
 - (d) When an FBO combines new non-Manager case credits from various countries, those case credits may count for the overall non-Manager case credit requirement (700, 600, 500) in only one country. In all remaining countries in which the FBO desires to qualify, the overall non-Manager case credit requirement must be satisfied without counting the new non-Manager case credits that they used to qualify in the first country. For example, if an FBO had a total of 200 new non-Manager case credits worldwide, and used 150 of them to qualify in the first country, they cannot use those 150 to count toward the overall non-Manager case credit requirement in the second country. However, they can use the remaining fifty new non-Manager case credits to count towards the overall non-Manager case credit requirement in the second country.

- (e) A Manager who is requalifying to receive leadership bonus (see 7.4 of the policy manual) will only be able to count case credits for the Chairman's Bonus after the three months of requalification have been completed. For example, if a Manager is requalifying for leadership bonus during December, January and February, the case credits for the Chairman's Bonus qualification will start to count effective on the 1st March. However, the Manager is considered active and leadership bonus-qualified during those months, hence allowing them to be eligible to participate in Chairman's Bonus.

11.6. Unless qualified for a 1.5K or higher Global Rally award, each CBM will be awarded a trip to the FLP Global Rally to be recognised and receive his/her bonus. This trip for two includes:

Orders for a product should not be placed until 75% of the FBO's stock of that product has been sold. Further, by placing a reorder for the same product, an FBO is certifying that he/she has used or sold 75% or more of the previous order.
- 13.3. Any FBO may order product and literature directly from any of the Company's Forever Centres, which are based at some area centres.
- 13.4. FBOs cannot purchase more than 25CC on their own ID in any single month without prior permission from Head Office.

- 13.6. If an FBO asks a third party to place and collect orders for them, it is the FBO's responsibility to obtain proof that the order has been correctly placed and collected. The Company's responsibility is to ensure that all orders received are allocated and fulfilled as they are presented.
- 13.7. The minimum value of any first order of product is £75 inclusive of VAT at the Preferred Customer price. There is no subsequent minimum order value for Preferred Customers. The minimum order value for FBOs at wholesale price is £50 inclusive of VAT.

- 13.11. Any orders placed at a Forever Centre should be checked upon receipt and the Forever Centre supervisor notified immediately of any discrepancy or damage. Sales are considered final once the FBO has made or approved payment and left the Forever Centre. - 13.12. Any orders placed at Forever Centres have to be collected within ninety days of the order being placed. The company accepts no responsibility for orders not collected within this period.

- 13.15. In the unlikely event that a payment is not honoured, the Company reserves the right to pass on any and all additional expenses incurred, which includes a bank charge (currently £10/€15.00) for each unsatisfactory presentation of a cheque.
- 13.16. Any payments which have been declined or charged back by the card holder will result in any bonuses generated by orders being held at the discretion of the Company and reductions to the bonuses in subsequent months to the value of the uncleared payments and associated bank charges being made. Any balance owed after these deductions will be forwarded to the FBO as soon as is reasonable. case credits on these same orders will also be adjusted.
- 13.17. Where a payment for orders upon which bonuses have been paid is not rectified following a declined or charged back payment, the bonuses paid to the FBO's upline will be recovered at the earliest possible time by making a deduction from future bonus payments to the upline. case credits on these same orders will also be adjusted.

 - (ii) Not purchased or received any FLP products, either from the Company or from any other source, and
 - (iii) Not received payments of any kind from an FBO, and
 - (iv) Not sponsored any other individuals into the FLP business.

Such second-named person (having fulfilled the requirements listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section) is then eligible to re-sponsor under any FBO. If the second-named person wishes to re-sponsor under the first-named person of an FBO business that is not being re-sponsored, he/she may do so without having to fulfil the requirements listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.
- (c) If the spouse of a legally married FBO who is not being re-sponsored wishes to create his/her own Forever business, he/she must do so by sponsoring directly under his/her spouse or directly under the spouse's sponsor, without having to fulfill the requirements listed in paragraph 14.01 of this section.
- (d) A re-sponsored FBO begins again as a Preferred Customer under the new sponsor and loses any downline acquired to that point in all countries into which he/she was previously sponsored.
- (e) A re-sponsored Preferred Customer counts as a newly-sponsored Preferred Customer for all global incentives and promotions.
- (f) If the re-sponsoring FBO is a sponsored recognised Manager, and has any First-Generation Recognised Managers in his/her organisation, these Managers will be classified as inherited Managers in the newly appointed sponsor's first generation.
- (g) The responsoring Sponsored Recognised Manager will continue to count toward his/her previous Sponsor's Manager pin level.

- (i) Relinquish the Forever business and any existing downline in the country into which he/she last sponsored, provided that he/she has not purchased product or sponsored anyone within the last twelve months in that country. They must also retain the Forever business under the sponsor who is on his/her original application form. He/she will retain the current sales level attained in the Marketing Plan. The downline of the relinquished business will move up to the next upline sponsor.

- (ii) Retain the separate Forever businesses; that of the original sponsor will be the primary in which he/she qualifies as active each month. Upon so qualifying, the secondary Forever business will receive an activity waiver.

15. International Sponsoring Policies

- (a) This policy affects all international sponsoring after 22 May 2002.
- (b) A wholesale qualified FBO can be sponsored into a country outside his/her home country by following the procedure outlined below:
 - (i) The FBO must contact the Head Office of his/her home country, or the country into which he/she wishes to sponsor, and request to be internationally-sponsored into the desired country.
 - (ii) The FBO's original ID number will be used in all countries into which he/she is internationally-sponsored.
 - (iii) The FBO's sponsor will be the person who appears as the sponsor on his/her very first application form accepted by FLP, except in the case of a re-sponsorship or a Preferred Customer six-month sponsor change.
 - (iv) The FBO will automatically start at the current attained sales level in all countries into which he/she is internationally-sponsored.
 - (v) When an FBO achieves a sales level with case credits from a single operating company, it becomes effective in that Company immediately upon qualification and is reflected in all other countries the following month. If the FBO achieves a sales level with case credits combined from multiple operating companies, it becomes effective in all countries on the 15th of the month following the qualification.
 - (vi) Upon achieving active status (4CC) in the home country, the FBO will be considered active in all other countries the following month, regardless of the sales level he/she has achieved.
 - (vii) If an FBO who has not yet achieved Manager in his/her home country is moved up to Manager level in a foreign country, he/she must be active during the move-up period and have at least 25 personal and non-Manager case credits either in the home country or in the country of move-up during the final month of move up in order to be a recognised Manager.
 - (viii) When an FBO changes residence to a different country, he/she must notify the old country of residence so that the address can be changed and a new home country assigned.
- (c) A Preferred Customer can be registered and assigned to the same FBO in multiple countries, however the case credits of his/her purchases cannot be combined from multiple countries for qualification as a Wholesale Qualified FBO.

16. Prohibited Activities

- 16.1. The Executive Committee's decision to terminate a Forever business or to disallow, realign or adjust the personal discount, bonuses, case credits, compensation or any incentive awards for any FBO's involvement in activities or omissions that are not in conformance with Company policies or the Code of Professional Conduct shall be final. Intentional acts of omission and disregard for the Company policies by an FBO shall be severely dealt with and may include termination and legal action for damages.
- 16.2. Prohibited activities causing grounds for termination and liability for any damages caused by such acts include, but are not limited to, the following conduct:

In order to ensure no inventory loading is occurring:
 - (i) Each FBO who orders product that was the subject of a prior order shall also be confirming and certifying to the Company that 75% of the prior order of that product has been sold or otherwise utilised. Each FBO should keep accurate records of monthly sales, these records can be subject to inspection by the Company upon reasonable notice. Such records will include reports reflecting inventory on hand at the end of the month.
 - (ii) The Company will be liberal in its application of the buy-back policy on termination of a Forever business, but FLP will not repurchase products or issue refunds on products certified as having been consumed or sold. Falsely representing the amount of product sold or consumed in order to advance in the Marketing Plan shall be grounds for termination.
 - (iii) To discourage the FBO from encouraging other FBOs to circumvent the inventory-loading prohibition, the Company will charge back to a terminated FBO's upline any bonuses paid on product returned from a terminating FBO.
 - (c) Proxy purchasing. An FBO is prohibited from purchasing product in any other than his/her own name.

The equivalent case credit of such a prohibited sale shall not be allowed for purposes of meeting the active requirement or qualification requirement for any other benefits within the Marketing Plan. Resulting adjustments shall be made for this non-compliance.

- (e) An FBO is prohibited from engaging in activities that are prohibited in all sections of 17.1, 19.2, and 20 as set forth herein.

- (g) An FBO is prohibited from any action or failure to act which evidences intentional disregard and gross negligence of Company policies or the Code of Professional Conduct.
- (h) Selling in stores.
 - (i) Except as herein provided in this section below, an FBO is prohibited from permitting Company products to be sold or displayed in retail stores. However, exhibitions for a period of less than two weeks in a twelve-month period at the same venue are considered temporary and are therefore permitted after receiving written approval from Head Office.
 - (ii) Permission for temporary venues will not be granted where an FBO working with other FBO's attempting to create a permanent or prolonged retail presence at a venue.
 - (iii) 'Service-orientated' establishments, such as hairdressers, beauty salons, health clubs, etc., can be exceptions to the rule on retail outlets. However, the products being sold should be relevant to, or be used in connection with, the service provided. Clarification in respect of such outlets should be sought from Head Office. Where approved, such establishments will be allowed to display and sell products only within the section of their premises where the service is supplied (e.g. treatment room). However, exterior signs or window displays by such FBO to advertise the sale of Company products are prohibited.

- (j) Selling online. An FBO is prohibited from transacting the sale of Forever products using any internet-based sales channel other than the Company-provided retail storefront at foreverliving.com or a Company-approved third party website. Permitting or facilitating

- (k) Selling to others for resale. An FBO is prohibited from selling FLP products to anyone for the purpose of resale or entrusting others to sell FLP products.
- (l) Sponsoring an FBO into another company. An FBO may belong to another network but they are not permitted to engage in such activities that involve the soliciting of any person, whom an FBO, or a person who has been an FBO within the previous twelve months, knows, or would reasonably have reason to know, is an FBO or customer of the Company, or to sell other products of any nature by or through another multi-level marketing plan. They are also not permitted to, in the opinion of the Company, attempt to build or establish a business that would cause a detrimental effect to, or be at the expense of, other FBOs, their customers, their group or the Company.
- (m) An FBO is prohibited from disparaging other FBOs, FLP's products/services, the marketing and compensation plan, or FLP's employees to other FBOs or third parties. Any questions, suggestions or comments regarding these issues should be directed in writing to FLP's corporate offices only.
- (n) Making product claims. FBOs may not make any representation, expressly or by implication, that Forever products can prevent, diagnose, treat or cure any disease or medical condition. Forever products that are intended to be ingested into the body are purely nutritional and/or nutritional supplements and are, therefore, regulated throughout the world as food. - (o) Making earnings claims. FBOs may not make any representation, expressly or by implication, regarding the amount or level of income, including full-time or part-time income, that a prospective FBO can reasonably expect to earn. Implied representations of income that an FBO reasonably can expect to earn include, but are not limited to, representations and/or images used to show a dramatically-improved, luxurious or lavish lifestyle.
- (p) Operating business by proxy. A Forever business, and any resulting downline, created or operated by proxy, either intentionally or inadvertently, is prohibited, and shall be adjusted for compliance with Company policies and the Code of Professional Conduct by the Executive Committee.
- (q) Exporting product. An FBO is authorised to purchase product for the purpose of selling and using said product in the country in which it was purchased. An FBO is prohibited from purchasing product for the purpose of exporting said products to a country outside the country in which it was purchased, except for his/her personal and family use in a country where there is no authorised FLP office, without the written consent of the Home Office in Scottsdale, Arizona, USA.
- (r) Exerting influence. An FBO is prohibited from attempting in any manner to induce, coerce or persuade any other FBO to terminate his or her position, cease doing business or reduce his or her business-building activities for any reason.
- (s) Improper Conduct. Forever shall have the exclusive right to terminate an FBO's distributorship, without notice, if he/she engages in conduct that, in Forever's reasonable judgment:

- (iv) does or could bring Forever into disrepute.

Upon termination under this section(s), FBOs are forbidden from making derogatory or disparaging statements concerning Forever to any third party.

17. Company Policies

- (a) The FBO's relationship with the Company is one of a contractual nature. Only adult individuals, 18 years or older, may contract with FLP to be an FBO:
 - (i) All FBOs are self-employed independent FBOs. They are not agents, representatives or employees of the Company. They are to conduct their business within their own time and by any means, method or manner of operation they may choose, provided they conform to all the agreed terms contained in the Company policies, English law and any other applicable regulations or codes of practice.
 - (ii) An FBO is independent and not an agent, legal representative or employee of the Company. As such he/she is solely responsible for all aspects of his/her business including all taxes, income tax, VAT, National Insurance contributions and any other fees or licences that are payable or required to conduct his/her business.
 - (iii) An FBO is responsible for all expenses incurred in running his/her business. As a self-employed business person, the FBO, except to the extent that it is contrary to the terms of the FBO agreement or current Company policies, may conduct his/her business as an independent Business Owner of Forever Living Products in the manner and at the time of his/her choosing and may carry out such other activities in addition to his/her Forever Living Products' activities as he/she considers appropriate.
- (b) An FBO is considered an independent contractor, and is required to conduct his/her business within the terms of the Forever business agreement, and in compliance with the Company policies and the Code of Professional Conduct that are applicable in the country in which he/she is conducting business.
- (c) If the spouse of a legally married Terminated FBO wishes to create his/her own Forever Business within one year of the date of termination, he/she must do so by sponsoring directly under the Terminated FBO's former sponsor. However, if joining a year or more after the Termination, the spouse may choose any FBO as his/her sponsor.
- (d) An FBO shall be held responsible to properly manage his/her Forever business, specifically, but not limited to, preventing family members from using information obtained through such Forever business to circumvent compliance of Company policies and the Code of Professional Conduct required or evolving from the Forever business of the FBO. An FBO's failure to properly manage his/her Forever business may result in termination.
- (e) In the event that the downlines of an FBO sponsor into a foreign country and the FBO has not previously been sponsored into that country, the FBO will be automatically sponsored into that foreign country and agrees to the prevailing policies and local laws of that foreign country and agrees to be bound by the dispute resolution policies set forth herein.
- (f) An FBO may not, under existing legislation, set up bank accounts in the name of Forever

Living Products, or by any other means 'pass themselves off' as Forever Living Products.

- (g) Independent FBOs must ensure that any supplier providing goods and/or services to them is informed that they are dealing with an independent FBO of Forever Living Products, and that the FBO is solely responsible for all payments of any goods/services supplied. All supplier invoices must be sent to the FBO's usual business address and not to the Company. Under no circumstances will the Company be responsible for any debt incurred or monies owed by an independent FBO to a supplier.

17.2. FLP agrees to sell the FBO product and pay volume bonuses as provided in the Company Marketing Plan, provided the FBO is not in violation of their contract with FLP.

17.3. An FBO may develop his/her own marketing techniques, so long as they are not in violation of any Company, governmental or legislative rules, regulations or statutes.

17.4. Any transfer other than by inheritance of a Forever Business, without prior Company approval, is prohibited and any such transfer shall be void. For the purpose of this provision, a change of beneficial interest of a trust-held Forever business shall be treated as a transfer, which requires written approval by the Company to be valid.

17.5. Except as herein provided, an FBO is prohibited from, directly or indirectly, changing sponsors. FLP will only consider the first valid application received by the Home Office. Subsequent applications shall be disallowed.

17.6. Making changes:

- (a) When an FBO changes residence to a different country, he/she must notify the old country of residence so that the address can be changed and a new home country assigned.
- (b) Any changes to a joint FBO ID, such as change of name, bank details, address change can only be made by sending a letter to Head Office signed by the persons registered under that FBO ID.
- (c) FBOs are responsible for ensuring Head Office holds the correct details for correspondence and payments. The Company cannot be liable for any losses incurred through an FBO failing to update their details.

17.7. Errors or questions

If an FBO has questions about or believes any errors have been made regarding the personal discount, bonuses, downline activity reports, charges, or changes, the FBO must notify FLP within sixty days of the date of the purported error or incident in question. FLP will not accept responsibility for any errors, omissions or problems not reported within sixty days.

17.8. Voluntary termination:

- (a) If an FBO terminates their Forever Business within the first fourteen days of entering into it, or if the Company terminates it, they may receive a full refund. The FBO may only re-register after twelve months from the date of termination by completing a new FBO application form.
- (b) If an FBO terminates after fourteen days they may also return to the Company's Head

Office (at the Company's expense), within twenty-one days of termination of their appointment, any products which they have purchased from the Company within the previous twelve months prior to such termination.

If the products are returned in the condition in which they were supplied (except if the external packaging is damaged), the Company will give the FBO a full refund on the return of the products (less a 10% handling charge which will not be levied if the Company terminates the Forever business), and less if the returned products have deteriorated due to an act or default on the FBOs part; this will be an amount equal to the diminution in their value resulting from such deterioration (which will not be levied if the Company terminates the Forever business). If the product returned by a terminating FBO is greater than 1CC, all bonuses, new FBO profit and case credits received by the terminating FBO's upline for the products returned, may be deducted from the upline. If the case credits were used for any level move-ups of the FBO or upline, those move-ups may be re-calculated after deducting the case credits to determine if the move-ups should remain in force.

- (c) Any monies payable under the above provisions shall be paid upon return of the goods sold to the FBO to Head Office. It is the responsibility of the terminating FBO to return the products. Products must be returned to Head Office and not a Forever Centre. If such goods are already held by the Company at its Head Office, then the monies will be payable immediately.
- (d) If an FBO wishes to terminate their Forever business, they may do so at any time by giving fourteen days written notice to the Company at its Head Office. In the case of a joint Forever business, the written notice must be signed by both parties. The period of notice of the termination shall start to run from the day when such notice is posted by first class post to the Company at its Head Office. The effective date of termination is the date on which the Head Office approves and processes the termination request.
- (e) The terminating FBO forfeits the current sales level and all downlines, including those in foreign countries, established at the time. Following termination his/her downlines are transferred to his/her sponsor in the existing generation sequence. Once an FBO terminates, their spouse/partner (if applicable) is also considered terminated, regardless of whether or not the spouse/partner was the original signatory of the FBO application form or whether the spouse/partner was active in the Forever business.
- (f) An FBO who voluntarily terminates their Forever business may re-register after twelve months by completing a new FBO application form. The FBO would enter at the Preferred Customer level and will not have the previous downline organisation restored.
- (g) The Company reserves the right to reclaim from FBOs who terminate their Forever business, and all their affected upline, all bonuses and case credits received for the products returned. If the product returned by a terminating FBO was purchased at Preferred Customer price, the Preferred Customer profit will be deducted from the immediate upline sponsor and, if the product returned is greater than 1CC, all bonuses and case credits received by the terminating FBO's upline for the products returned will be deducted from the upline. If the case credits were used for any level move-ups of the FBO or upline, those move-ups may be re-calculated after deducting the case credits to determine if the move-ups should remain in force.

- (h) If a terminating FBO returns a Touch of Forever or any other combination pack, and it is missing some product, the refund and the deductions from the upline will be calculated as if the entire combination pack was returned, and then the wholesale or Preferred Customer value of the missing components will be deducted from the refund issued.
- (i) If the terminating FBO is a sponsored recognised Manager, and has any first-generation recognised Managers in his/her organisation, these Managers will be classed as inherited Manager to the newly appointed sponsor.
- (j) The Terminated Sponsored Recognised Manager will continue to count toward his/her previous sponsor's Manager pin level.

17.9. Termination or suspension for cause

- (a) Termination means a severance of all domestic and international privileges and contractual rights available to an FBO, including the privilege to buy and distribute the products. The termination will result in the inability to qualify for bonuses, and severance of participation in all other benefit programmes sponsored by the Company.
- (b) A terminated FBO shall, upon demand by FLP, be liable to repay, return or compensate FLP for any benefit programmes, prizes, inventories, or bonuses received from FLP from and after the date of the activities causing such termination. After recouping any costs or damages resulting from the terminated FBO's conduct, forfeited bonuses, caused by such termination, shall be paid to the next qualifying FBO upline who is not in violation of any of the Company policies and the Code of Professional Conduct.
- (c) After twelve months, a terminated FBO may reapply subject to Home Office approval. Upon such approval the FBO will enter as a Preferred Customer, and will not have the previous downline organisation restored.
- (d) Suspension is a temporary status that prohibits an FBO from placing orders, receiving profit and bonus payments, and sponsoring other FBOs.
- (e) The profits and bonuses of a suspended FBO shall be held until the FBO is either reinstated or terminated. If reinstated, the withheld payments shall be paid to the FBO; otherwise they shall be disbursed in accordance to the Marketing Plan.
- (f) The Company reserves the right to terminate a Forever business by giving fourteen days' written notice. The period of notice of the termination shall start to run from the day when such notice is posted by first class post to the to the address on file at Head Office.
- (g) The Company reserves the right to terminate any Forever business as a result of conduct or actions by an FBO or his/her spouse that are consistently in violation of the Company policies and the Code of Professional Conduct. Where the Company or its staff become aware of such conduct, a written warning will be sent to the postal address/email address on file at Head Office, asking the FBO or his/her spouse to cease and desist from such conduct. If the FBO does not heed this warning and respond to Head Office with a written undertaking to cease and desist, then the Company reserves the right to terminate the Forever business agreement with immediate effect.
- (h) In cases of gross misconduct or actions that seriously violate the interests of the Company or its FBOs, the Company reserves the right to terminate the Forever business immediately without any prior warning or notice.

- (j) If the terminated FBO is a sponsored recognised Manager, and has any First-Generation Recognised Manager in his/her organisation, these Managers will be classed as inherited Manager to the newly appointed sponsor.
- (k) The terminated Sponsored Recognised Manager will continue to count toward his/her previous sponsor's Manager pin level.

17.10. Internet policies

- (a) Selling products online. Each FBO will be offered the opportunity to purchase a Company-approved FBO website, FLP360, or through www.foreverknowledge.info for marketing products online using a direct link to the Company's online shop at www.foreverliving.com. This will allow the FBO to build a website for marketing, promoting, advertising, and selling products online. All retail online orders made through these websites will be processed by Forever, with the CC and profit going to that FBO. Any amendments or additions made to these websites must comply with Company policies and be approved by the Company. Online orders through this website will be fulfilled directly by the Company. This internet link is arranged so that the FLP pages will remain within the FBO's website. The guests virtually never leave the FBO's website. In order to maintain the integrity of FLP's brand name, product line and the FBO/customer relationship, an FBO is prohibited from selling any FLP brand products online through an independent website. E-commerce sales can only be made directly by or through a link to the official Company online shop at www.foreverliving.com.
- (b) Sponsoring an FBO online via an electronic signature application or online form is prohibited outside of the direct application or link to the official Company website at www.foreverliving.com or www.foreverknowledge.info.
- (c) Independent FBO websites marketing and promoting the products or business opportunity, without online sales or sponsoring, are permitted so long as they comply with, or are modified to, comply with Company policies and the Code of Professional Conduct.
- (d) An FBO may not use the name 'Forever Living Products' or any of its trademarks, trade names, product names, domain names (URL) or copy/use any Company materials from any source that may result in misleading or confusing the user into thinking the FBO's website is that of the Company or any of its official affiliates. FLP product names are strictly proprietary to the Company and cannot be used by any FBO as a sponsored link or for any other unauthorised use. An independent FBO website must clearly indicate that it represents an independent FBO who is not an agent of the Company or any of its worldwide affiliates.
- (e) The FBO must link any independent website(s) to the Company's official website created and maintained by the Company at www.foreverliving.com.
- (f) All independent FBO websites must reflect and connect only to companies or products that carry the FLP label and be of good moral content.

- (g) Electronic advertising. Only independent FBO websites that have been approved by the Company, or are as part of an online banner or display ads that conform to the Company's advertising guidelines and have been approved by Company, will be allowed. All electronic advertising is subject to and controlled by the Company policies and Professional Code of Conduct relating to advertising and promotional guidelines.
- (h) All product-related online banners that are not Company-issued, display adverts or links to shops from third-party websites are not allowed. Company-issued banners are available via www.foreverliving.com; no other wording may be added to or around the banner.
- (i) Websites and social media sites created by FBOs must clearly state that they, the individual, are an independent Forever Living Business Owner, who is self-employed and not an employee of Forever or any of its worldwide affiliates.

17.11. Business Entity

- (a) An FBO is allowed, subject to specific conditions, to register a closely held business entity to hold his/her Forever Business. A closely held business entity shall be defined as a business entity held by the original primary FBO, or if required by law or approved by FLP, two shareholders, owners, members or trustees will be allowed who must be directly involved in the day-to-day operation of the business (hereinafter referred to as the "Business Entity"). In addition to compliance with all of FLP standard Forever Business requirements and FLP Company Policies, the individual FBO(s) will be required to execute a Forever Business Entity Agreement, which shall supplement, be incorporated and considered part of, the Forever Business Owner Agreement, outlining the additional terms and conditions under which the FBO agrees to operate as a Business Entity. The Forever Business Entity Agreement can be obtained in the 'Forms and Downloads' link available under My Business after signing in as an FBO at foreverliving.com.
- (b) The FBO is solely responsible for seeking individual professional advice regarding the establishment of a business entity, its tax effects and any other contingent legal issues. FLP explicitly disavows any responsibility and liability pertaining to an FBO's decision to operate his/her Forever Business as a Business Entity. FLP does not represent nor shall give any tax, accounting or legal advice regarding assigning one's Forever Business to a Business Entity.
- (c) The Company shall not be liable for any loss of profit, indirect, direct, special or consequential damages, and for any other losses incurred or suffered by an FBO as a result of transferring one's Business Ownership from his/her individual name to a business entity.

18. Legal

18.1. Dispute resolution/waiver of jury trial

- (a) If a controversy or claim arising out of or relating to the FBO relationship or FLP products cannot be resolved by negotiations, the Company and FBO agree that in order to promote to the fullest extent reasonably possible a mutually amicable resolution of the dispute in a timely, efficient and cost-effective manner, he/she will waive his/her respective rights to a trial by jury and settle the dispute by submitting the dispute to the American Arbitration Association (AAA) for binding arbitration in Maricopa County, Arizona, in accordance with the written procedures adopted by FLP for resolution of disputes in accordance with the written Dispute Resolution Policy currently in effect and available on the Company's website at www.foreverliving.com. Maricopa County, Arizona shall be deemed the sole and exclusive place for jurisdiction and venue of any dispute between the company and the FBO, and if appropriate, under FLP's dispute resolution procedures, a court of competent jurisdiction located in the State of Arizona, Maricopa County. The Forever Business Owner application and agreement shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of Arizona.
- (b) Participating in the international sponsoring programme is a privilege that gives each FBO the chance to benefit from FLP's international network of companies. The international sponsoring programme is monitored from FLP's Home Office in Maricopa County, Arizona. An FBO participating in the international sponsoring programme agrees and consents that any disputes arising out of or relating to the FBO relationship or FLP products, involving any of the FLP affiliated companies, shall be resolved through binding arbitration in Maricopa County, Arizona, pursuant to ForeverLiving.com and Forever Living Products International, LLC's current dispute resolution policies as set forth above and stated on FLP's Company website at www.foreverliving.com.
- (c) We always aim to reach a fair outcome without the need for formal dispute as detailed above; if you are unhappy with our decision following a complaint, then there are a number of government-approved and EU listed third-party 'Alternative Dispute Resolution' (ADR) providers that you may wish to contact. Forever Living Products (UK) Ltd is not obliged to, and does not agree to, have its consumers' complaints handled by ADR providers other than the Direct Selling Association (DSA). The DSA offer a dispute handling service which is specific to direct selling companies such as Forever Living Products (UK) Ltd (who are members of the DSA). For details of this, and of the DSA's Codes of Practice, contact the DSA on 01604 625 700 or visit their website at www.dsa.org.uk.

18.2. Testamentary transfers

- (a) The transfer or assignment of a Forever business is prohibited except in the event of death or legal separation or divorce.
- (b) If the Forever business is held in a business entity, the death of the primary shareholder will not remove the Forever business from the business entity so long as the ownership of the business entity remains in conformity with Company policies governing ownership of such business entity. The transfer will be recognised by the Company when a court order or legal documents addressing the transfer are submitted to and approved by the Company.

(c) Within six months following the date of the FBO's death, the surviving FBO, trustee or estate representative shall provide notification of such death to his/her domestic Home Office of FLP. Such notice is to include a certified copy of the death certificate, a certified copy of the Will or Grantor's Trust, or court order, authorising the transfer of the Forever business to a qualified successor. After six months from the date of death, FLP may remove the deceased FBO from the Forever business. Giving timely notification and providing the required documentation for a successor's interest will be required to prevent a suspension and/or termination of the Forever business. If based on valid reasons, a request for a reasonable extension of time to provide transfer documents may be submitted to the deceased FBO's FLP domestic Home Office prior to the end of the six-month period. FLP reserves the right to make payments to the joint survivor, beneficiary, trustee or legally authorised personal representative of the estate of a deceased FBO pending the timely submission of appropriate legal documentation.

(d) The inheritable rights to a Forever business are limited and restricted as follows:

- (i) The heir must be a person who can qualify as an FBO. If said heir is already an FBO they must liaise with Head Office during the transfer proceedings.
- (ii) Because the heir must be an adult individual, a trust or guardianship may have to be established for multiple heirs or minor children. In the event a trust is established, a copy must be placed on file with FLP. Its terms must clearly allow the trustee to act as an FBO. A guardian or a trustee of a testamentary trust must be appointed by the court of proper jurisdiction and receive specific approval to be the FBO on behalf of the minors.
- (iii) A trustee or guardian shall retain the FBO status so long as the Forever Business Owner agreement is not violated, until the beneficiaries have attained the age of majority, and an heir accepts the responsibility of operating the Forever business with prior approval of the court.
- (iv) A trustee, guardian, spouse or other representative-type FBO shall be responsible for the actions of the beneficiary, ward, or his/her spouse for purposes of following the policy terms of the Forever Business Owner agreement. A violation of Company policies and the Code of Professional Conduct by any of the above individuals may result in termination of the Forever business.
- (v) The inheritable Forever business position within the Company Marketing Plan is limited to recognition at no higher than that of Manager. However, bonuses shall be paid at the same levels and requirements as held by the deceased. All sponsored Managers belonging to the Forever business will be reclassified as inherited Managers, who can subsequently qualify as a sponsored Manager as outlined in Section 5.04(e). Forever business positions below Manager shall be inherited at that level.

18.3. Transfers due to divorce

- (a) During a pending divorce or negotiation of a property settlement, FLP will continue to disburse payments to the FBO as was done prior to the pending action.

- (b) In the event of divorce or a legal separation, a legally enforceable property settlement agreement may decree the Forever business be granted to one spouse or the other. The Forever business cannot, however, be partitioned. Only one adult individual will be entitled to retain the current downline of this Forever business. The other spouse may choose to establish their own Forever business at the same level of the Marketing Plan as established with the ex-spouse. Such other spouse must use the original sponsor. The other spouse's new Forever business shall be treated by the sponsor as inherited until re-qualified.

18.4. VAT

When retailing goods to a third party, a VAT receipt can only be provided if the FBO is VAT registered.

18.5. It is the FBO's responsibility to notify Head Office when he/she becomes VAT registered or if he/she is registered when joining the Company. An FBO will need to become VAT registered when the FBO's retail turnover and bonus income exceeds the VAT registration limit laid down by revenue and customs authorities. The FBO will notify the Company if he/she de-registers for VAT and indemnifies the Company against any loss which results from the FBO failing to do so.

18.6. Upon registering or, if applicable, upon joining the Company, the FBO should provide a copy of his/her VAT Registration Certificate to Head Office and commence invoicing the Company for VAT on his/her monthly bonus.

18.7. Insurance

The Company displays a Certificate of Public Liability Insurance at each location that is owned and operated by the Company. This includes Head Office (Longbridge Manor and Magheramorne House), the Distribution Centre and all Area Centres. This insurance provides cover in the event of a member of staff or a visitor suffering an accident at a Company site. It does not cover individual FBOs carrying out their business at other sites, such as customers' homes, exhibition halls, etc. The Company strongly recommends that FBOs maintain adequate public liability insurance.

18.8. All FBOs are responsible for ensuring that any vehicle used by them in the course of their business is sufficiently covered by their motor insurance policy. The Company cannot be held responsible for FBOs invalidating the conditions of their motor insurance policies by using their private vehicles to conduct their business.

18.9. Data protection

FBOs who collect and retain personal information relating to third parties must be aware of and comply with the laws of England, Ireland, Wales and Scotland and the General Data Protection Regulation concerning the processing of personal data. 'Personal data' means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject');

An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.

This applies to personal information:

- (a) held manually, for example in a filing cabinet and/or on a personal computer, for example on a database, and
- (b) from which such persons can be identified.

18.10. FBOs who process personal data must also consider whether they are required to notify the Office of the Information Commissioner of their data processing activities. Guidance can be found on the Information Commissioner's website: www.ico.org.uk

18.11. The Company, as Data Controller, has duly notified the Office of the Information Commissioner of the purposes of its data processing.

18.12. FBOs agree that the Company may retain and process all personal information given to the Company by the FBO for purposes including marketing, business creation and development, management reporting, bonuses payable and awards. The Company may record this information both manually and/or on a computer database and will be the Data Controller for this information.

18.13. The FBO agrees that the Company may disclose and transfer this personal information to his/her upline sponsor and to other members of the Company's group situated outside the European economic area for the purpose of the Company's business.

19. Restrictive Covenants

19.1. To the extent permitted by law, FLP, its directors, officers, shareholders, employees, assigns and agents (collectively referred to as "Associates") shall not be liable for, and the FBO releases FLP and its Associates from and waives all claims, any loss of profits, indirect, direct, special or consequential damages, or any other losses incurred or suffered by the FBO as a result of:

- (a) The FBO's breach of the Forever Business Owner agreement of FLP Company policies and the Code of Professional Conduct.
- (b) The promotion or operation of the FBO's Forever business and FBO's activities related to it.
- (c) The FBO's incorrect or wrong data or information provided to FLP or its Associates.
- (d) The FBO's failure to provide any information or data necessary for FLP to operate its business, including, without limitation, FBO's enrolment and acceptance into the FLP Marketing Plan and the payment of volume bonuses.
- (e) Transfers pursuant to death, legal separation or divorce of an FBO.
- (f) Each FBO agrees that the entire liability of FLP and its associates for any claim whatsoever related to the relationship of awareness including, but not limited to, any cause of action in contract, tort, or equity, shall not exceed, and shall be limited to, the amount of products the FBO has purchased from FLP that are in resaleable condition.

19.2. Limited license to use Company marks.

- (a) The name "Forever Living Products", symbols of FLP and other names as may be adopted by FLP including FLP product names are proprietary trade names and trademarks of the Company.
- (b) Each FBO is hereby licensed by FLP to use FLP's registered trademarks, service marks, and other marks (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Marks"), in conjunction with the performance of the FBO duties and obligations under the Forever Business Owner agreement and the corresponding policies and procedures. All Marks are and shall remain the exclusive property of "FLP". The Marks may only be used as authorised by the Forever Business Owner agreement and FLP's corresponding policies and procedures. The license granted herein shall be effective only as long as the FBO is in good standing and in full compliance with FLP's policies and procedures. However, it is prohibited for an FBO to claim any ownership of FLP's Marks (i.e. registering for a domain name using the name "FLP", "Forever Living", or any other FLP Mark in any way, shape or form) unless it has been approved in writing by FLP. These Marks are of great value to FLP and are supplied to each FBO for each FBO's use in an expressly authorised manner only.
- (c) Each FBO agrees not to use any written, printed, recorded or any other material in advertising, promoting or describing the product or FLP Marketing Plan which has not been copyrighted and supplied by FLP, unless such material has been submitted to FLP and approved in writing before being disseminated, published or displayed.

- (d) FBOs may not alter any packaging, labels, or directions for use on any FLP Products, or recommend that a product be used in any way other than as indicated by the Company literature.

20. Confidential Information and Non-Disclosure Agreement

- (a) Downline reports and all other reports and genealogical information, including, but not limited to, downline sales organisation information and commission recap statements, are private, proprietary and confidential to FLP.
- (b) Every FBO who is provided with such information must treat it as private and confidential and take care to maintain its secrecy and refrain from making any use thereof for any purpose other than the management of his/her downline sales organisation.
- (c) An FBO may have access to private and confidential information which he/she acknowledges to be proprietary, highly sensitive and valuable to FLP's business and is being made to him/her solely and exclusively for the purposes of furthering the sale of FLP products and prospecting, training and sponsorship of third parties who may desire to become FBOs and to further build and promote his/her FLP business.
- (d) "Trade Secret" or "Confidential Information" shall also mean information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, programme, device, method, technique or process, that:
 - (i) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and
 - (ii) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.
- (e) Whenever FLP makes information available to the FBO, it shall be for the sole purpose of conducting FLP business.
- (f) An FBO is prohibited from using, disclosing, duplicating or otherwise making any trade secret or confidential information available to anyone other than FBOs, without the prior written consent of FLP.
- (g) An FBO is prohibited from, directly or indirectly, using, capitalising upon, or exploiting any trade secret or confidential information for his/her own benefit, or for the benefit of anyone else, other than for the purpose of conducting his/her FLP business.
- (h) An FBO shall maintain the confidentiality and security of the trade secrets and confidential information in his/her possession and to protect against disclosure, misuse, misappropriation or any other action inconsistent with FLP's rights.
- (i) Further restrictive covenants. In consideration of FLP for the receipt of trade secret or confidential information, the FBO inherently agrees that for the term of the Forever business, the FBO shall not take or encourage any action, the purpose or effect of which would be to circumvent, breach, interfere with or diminish the value or benefit of FLP's contractual relationships with any FBO. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, for the term of the Forever business, the FBO agrees not to directly or indirectly, contact, solicit, persuade, enrol, sponsor or accept any FBO, FLP customer, or anyone who has been an FBO or customer for the last twelve months, into, or to encourage any such person in any way to promote opportunities in marketing programmes of any direct sales company other than FLP.

- (j) The agreements contained in the “Confidential Information” section of these policies shall remain forever and in perpetuity. The agreements contained in the “Further Restrictive Covenants” section of these policies shall remain in full force and effective during the term of the previously executed Forever Business Owner agreement between FLP and the FBO, and thereafter until one year from the latest receipt of any confidential information and termination of such Forever Business Owner agreement.

21. Code of Professional Conduct

- 21.1. Integrity, respect, diligence. We take great pride in not only on what we achieve, but how we achieve it. In fact, much of the Company's appeal to prospective new Business Owners is its well-deserved legacy of integrity, the respect we show to others and the diligence with which we build successful Forever businesses. As a Business Owner, we invite you to examine more closely your role in maintaining these core values and the underlying standards of conduct in a manner that will add to our legacy and ensure our long term mutual success. Failure to abide by the principles outlined in the Code of Professional Conduct may result in actions up to and including termination.
- 21.2 Effort, sacrifice and dedication. Forever Business Owners teach the principles of direct sales and network marketing to their teams, emphasising that, like any other worthy pursuit, it requires effort and sacrifice to be successful. The flexibility and financial freedom afforded by the Forever opportunity are earned by those who dedicate themselves to a routine of hard work over an extended period of time.
- 21.3. FBOs are builders. Forever Business Owners are builders. They build their individual retail businesses, their first line sponsored business and their multi-generational team. There is no place for tearing down, dismantling or discouraging others from building their respective businesses.
- 21.4. No medical, lifestyle or income claims. Forever Business Owners are truthful when prospecting by not making exaggerated claims about the Company, the capabilities of its products or the rewards available within its Marketing Plan whether in person or via social media. This includes medical claims and income projections of any kind.
- 21.5. Loyalty. Forever Business Owners are loyal to the Company, its staff and representatives, and fellow Business Owners at all times, avoiding gossip, criticism and internal 'politics'.
- 21.6. Proud professional direct seller. Forever Business Owners look and act the part of a proud professional direct seller and network marketer.
- 21.7. Teach good networking principles. Forever Business Owners teach their downline Business Owners and teams good principles of networking and personal conduct.
- 21.8. Positive attitude. Forever Business Owners display a positive attitude in both speech and behaviour, whether in person or via social media, to all Business Owners, in a spirit of co-operation and teamwork.
- 21.9. Support fellow Business Owners. Forever Business Owners are willing to help their own teams as well as give support to fellow Business Owners and their teams so that all benefit from a successful, vibrant, active local community of Business Owners.
- 21.10. Compliance with Company policies, Code of Professional Conduct, DSA Code of Ethics. Forever Business Owners are aware of and comply with all aspects of the Company policies, Code of Professional Conduct, and the DSA Code of Ethics.
- 21.11. Participation in Company events. Forever Business Owners at the Manager level attend a majority of Company events, and promote Company events to their team.

- 21.12. Lead by example. Forever Business Owners lead by example by sponsoring new frontline Business Owners, achieving monthly four case credits and striving to qualify as leadership managers and to achieve the Earned Incentive, Chairman's Bonus, Eagle Manager Retreat and Global Rally.
- 21.13. Avoid excessive product purchasing. Forever Business Owners encourage those they sponsor to carry product inventory appropriate to their needs for personal consumption and direct sales activity and to avoid excessive buying.
- 21.14. Integrity in sponsoring. Forever Business Owners insist that prospective Business Owners are sponsored under the Business Owner who introduced them to the Forever opportunity and refrain from sponsoring another Business Owner's prospect.
- 21.15. Dealing with challenges, issues and problems. Forever Business Owners deal with challenges, issues and problems personally and do not share them with Business Owners who are not personally involved, nor post them on social media. They use proper lines of communication for seeking answers or expressing concerns, beginning with their sponsor and moving upline or to the Company for further inquiry.
- 21.16. Refrain from promoting non-Forever products or service. Forever Business Owners refrain from promoting and/or selling any non-Forever product or service without prior written approval of the international Home Office.
- 21.17. Excessive charges for meeting attendance. Forever Business Owners refrain from promoting or hosting events, seminars, webinars, or meetings, regardless of venue or modality, within the Forever universe of FBOs where the charge for such activity exceeds the reasonable break-even costs of producing/conducting the activity. The purpose for all similar activities is to generate interest in, and income through, the Forever Marketing Plan.
- 21.18. Meetings in Company facilities. Forever Business Owners demonstrate their willingness to help fellow FBOs, regardless of sponsorship line, by inviting them and their guests to meetings conducted in Company facilities.
- 21.19. Persuading FBOs to terminate. Forever Business Owners refrain from, in any manner, inducing, coercing or persuading any other Business Owner or Preferred Customer to terminate his or her position, cease doing business or reduce his or her business building activities for any reason.
- 21.20. Refunding customers. Forever Business Owners provide the highest level of customer service and provide a refund to their customers in a timely manner when requested within sixty days of purchase.
- 21.21. Advertising. FBOs must familiarise themselves with the advertising guidelines set out in this section:
- (a) The Company's products may not be offered for sale in mail order catalogues or on websites operated by third parties. FBOs wishing to create their own catalogue or website should ensure that they conform to Company policy.
 - (b) FBOs must respect the customer's right to privacy and also their right to end any contact with the FBO. FBOs must never exploit their customers in any way.

- (c) FBOs must act with integrity ensuring that they never use misleading, deceptive or unfair sales practices. No attributes may be ascribed to the products unless those attributes are set out in the Company's official literature.
 - (d) All products must be described truthfully and accurately and any customer's questions must be answered clearly and honestly. Any information given relating to prices or any after-sale service must be clear and accurate.
 - (e) FBOs must keep accurate records of monthly sales to their customers (we advise that the most effective way to do so is to issue receipts for all sales). These records must be made available to the Company for inspection upon request and upon being given reasonable notice.
 - (f) When making any approach to a prospective customer, the FBO must immediately identify him/herself and explain the purpose of any approach made, the identity of the Company and the products sold.
 - (g) If an FBO invites prospective FBOs or retail customers to a meeting, he/she should ensure that the invitation to that meeting specifies the purpose of the meeting and explains that those invited to the meeting are under no obligation to purchase anything. Invitees must be given details of a named contact person and telephone/fax number or email address of that person.
 - (h) FBOs must be aware that products should only be used in ways recommended by the Company. If an FBO recommends a product for use that's not sanctioned by the Company, and this results in the customer seeking redress through litigation, the Company would not indemnify that FBO, i.e. they (the FBO) would be personally liable. FBOs are therefore advised against this practice.
 - (i) Before taking any of our products please consult your doctor and advise all customers to do so as our products are not medicinal products.
 - (j) An FBO has a duty of care not to make claims, suggest applications or dispense advice (medical or otherwise) for which they are not competent or authorised to do. The Company cannot accept liability for situations in which an FBO has made claims for the efficacy of products outside the statements published in customer literature printed by the Company.
- 21.22. All advertisements must be legal, decent, honest, truthful and accurate.
- (a) It is a requirement of the Company's membership of the Direct Selling Association (DSA), that advertisements utilised by FBOs include the wording "Forever Living Products is a member of the Direct Selling Association", unless space is extremely limited.
 - (b) FBOs are not to promote or endorse any of their own literature, sales tools or websites to any FBOs outside their own teams.
 - (c) Advertising methods such as 'leaflet drops' can be expensive and time-consuming, and may not yield much response. FBOs should consider whether the time and effort of such methods is a worthwhile investment. Successful Forever Living Products Business Owners find that 'word of mouth' is the most fruitful means of building a retail business.

- (d) FBOs who decide to advertise must use Company-approved text and images. This applies to all advertising media including the internet.
- (e) Any FBO using advertising that has not been approved in writing by the Company will bear sole liability for any prosecution arising from their advertising. The Company has a number of approved advertisements that are available for FBOs to use, (free of charge). These are available from www.foreverknowledge.info.
- (f) Exterior signs or window displays advertising the Company or its products will not be permitted at any location, excepting that window stickers in cars are permitted.
- (g) Forever Living Products (UK) Ltd has been awarded the Investor In People logo. This is for Head Office use only and must not be used by FBOs.

21.23. Retailing.

- (a) Advertisements may include photographs of the products.
- (b) Company products are not medicinal products. It is illegal therefore to make any representation about Company products that includes medicinal claims. This means that Company products must not be presented as being suitable for treating or preventing disease in human beings or animals. E.g. "shown to be effective on arthritis" is not allowed. Company products must also not be presented as being capable of correcting or modifying normal physiological functions in human beings or animals. E.g. "increases metabolic rate" is not permitted.
- (c) Testimonials and newspaper quotations may not be used to advertise Company products if they contain medicinal claims, even though they do not refer explicitly to Company products. If testimonials make non-medicinal claims there must be sufficient evidence to support such claims.
- (d) The inclusion of 'disclaimers' such as "we make no claims", etc., does not change the requirements.
- (e) The content and suitability for publication of editorial articles are the sole responsibility of the editor of the publication in which they are to appear. The Company does not vet or approve such items. The Company will endeavour, within the availability of its resources, to provide information about products when asked. FBOs should be aware that if they offer any payment for the publication of editorials, they are effectively advertising and therefore the same rules apply as stated in this section.

21.24. Recruiting new FBOs. When advertising for new FBOs, FBOs must at all times:

- (a) Promote the opportunity as a business relationship with the Company and not as an offer of employment.
- (b) Refrain from making unrepresentative or exaggerated earnings claims.
- (c) Ensure that any earnings claims relate to actual earnings of an identifiable person and be capable of verification.
- (d) Ensure that they never imply that income claims are easily or quickly achievable and - state how the income is achieved for example through bonus payments and retail sales.

- (e) Refrain from using misleading, deceptive or unfair recruiting methods.
- (f) Never promote the business as an opportunity solely to recruit others. All presentations, advertisements, etc., must promote the business as one where FBOs sell products to customers.
- (g) Although it is permitted for FBOs to advertise for others to join their business, it is generally accepted that this is not the best way and FBOs should be aware that there are statutory controls on such advertising.

WE RECOMMEND YOU OBTAIN AN AD PACK FOR MORE DETAILS. These are available (free of charge) online at foreverknowledge.info.

21.25. Social media sites.

- (a) Promoting the products is permitted on social media sites such as, but not limited to, Facebook and Twitter. Any post about Forever and/or Forever products must be accurate, truthful and in accordance with the company values.
- (b) If advertising the business opportunity, it must comply with legal requirements, i.e. displays the statutory wealth warning.
- (c) Promotion of the products for any potential medicinal properties are prohibited. No medical claims should be made about the products on social media or any other adverts created to promote your business.
- (d) Nutritional health claims made about the products on social media should not be made unless in compliance of EU regulation for nutritional health claims (ec 1924/2006), and are already within Company-approved literature, i.e. the product brochure.
- (e) Posting non-compliant content from other sites/posts on to your own social media is still in breach of this policy, even if you are not the author/creator of the content.
- (f) Social media adverts/pages/posts must clearly identify you as a Forever Business Owner. Any page/post created must not mislead the user/customer into believing or giving the impression the page belongs to the company.
- (g) We do not authorise competitions run by FBOs in any media. If wanting to run a competition, you are personally responsible that the competition is run in accordance with relevant laws/regulations, in addition to any rules put in place by the site host.
- (h) Products are not to be sold on social media or any other third-party website using a buy-it-now or cart facility.
- (i) Any endorsement or reference to specific groups, companies or high-profile people using Forever's products must receive prior approval by Head Office.
- (j) Promotional activity of your business on social media must be in accordance with the rules of the site, in addition to all relevant laws/regulations and company policy.

- (k) It is the responsibility of the Forever Business Owner who creates any page promoting their business to ensure posts made by themselves and others are compliant.
- (l) If approached by any regulatory body regarding a post you have made on social media, all requests must be carried out on their demand in a timely manner without unreasonable delay.
- (m) Any communication received from Head Office which is not in the public domain whether that is verbally or in writing must not be shared on social media or by any other means without prior consent.
- (n) Failure to adhere to the Company policy and the Code of Professional Conduct when using social media could result in the suspension and/or termination of your Forever business.
- (o) Team pages are owned and administered by the creator/admin of the group. The rules of membership to the team page and any other conditions associated with membership are not part of this policy. Any disputes should be resolved within the team.

- (d) When FLP products are acquired from or through an FBO, that FBO is the primary party responsible for customer satisfaction by exchanging the product or refunding the money. In the event there is a dispute, FLP will determine the facts and resolve the issue. If cash is disbursed by FLP, the same will be charged back to the FBO(s) who benefited from the product sale.

Refund and buy-back procedure for the FBO

22.4. During the respective stated periods of warranty and guarantee, FLP will provide a new replacement of the same such product in exchange for a defective product or for one that has been returned to an FBO by a retail customer due to lack of satisfaction. Such replacement shall be subject to validation of presented proof of timely purchase. Such purchase must have been by the FBO returning the product. In addition, for replacements of products to an FBO for product returns by retail customers, a proof of sale to the retail customer, written proof of cancellation, a signed receipt for return of funds, and the return of product or empty containers, within 120 days of purchase from FLP, will be required. Repetitive returns of product by the same parties may be rejected.

- (a) FLP shall buy back any unsold, saleable FLP product that has been purchased within the previous twelve months, from any FBO who terminates his/her Forever business. Such buy-back will be accomplished by the terminating FBO first giving written notice to FLP of intent to terminate their Forever business and foregoing all rights and privileges relating thereto. The terminating FBO must contact Head Office where collection of the products eligible for refund will be arranged.
- (b) If the product returned by a terminating FBO was purchased at Preferred Customer price, the Preferred Customer profit will be deducted from the FBO to whom it was paid. If the product returned is greater than 1CC, all bonuses and case credits received by the terminating FBO's upline (for the products returned) will be deducted from the upline. If the case credits were used for any level move-ups of the FBO or upline, those move-ups may be re-calculated after deducting the case credits to determine if the move-ups should remain in force.
- (c) If a terminating FBO returns any combination pack, and it is missing some product, the refund and the deductions from the upline will be calculated as if the entire combination pack was returned, and then the wholesale or Preferred Customer price of the missing components will be deducted from the refund issued.
- (d) After verification of the facts, the FBO will receive a refund from FLP in the amount equal to the FBO's cost of the products being returned, less the bonuses personally received, and the cost of handling, freight and any other appropriate set-offs (usually 10% of the value of products eligible for return).
- (e) After recouping any costs or damages resulting from the terminated FBO's adverse conduct, FLP will remove the FBO from the FLP Marketing Plan, and his/her entire downline organisation will move up directly to the terminating FBO's sponsor in the current generation sequence.

22.6. The buy-back rule is designed to impose upon the sponsor and the Company the obligation to ensure that the FBO is buying products wisely. The sponsor should make every effort to provide recommended guidelines to the FBO so that he/she purchases only as much product as is required to meet immediate sales needs. Products previously certified as having been sold, consumed or utilised shall not be subject to repurchase under the buy-back rule.
